

Explainer: What Is the Maximum Number of Dimension Members and Member Name Characters

Olalekan Adebayo
Updated 1 year ago

Not sure what the Maximum Members or Member Name Characters are? Read on to learn more.

What is the maximum number of Dimension Members I can Have?

The maximum number of members you can have in a data model is 400,000 members.

How many characters can I have in a Member Name?

The maximum number of characters you can have in a member name is 700 characters.

How many characters can I have in a Member Alias Name?

The maximum number of characters you can have in a member alias name is 700 characters.

---

Was this article helpful?

☐ ☐

0 out of 0 found this helpful

---

Related articles

How-To: Combining Dimensions Using Multiple Expressions for Slices to Clear

Explainer: What is Data Model Standardization?

Reference: Writing Expressions \(MQL & HQL\)

How-To: Search for Members, Attributes, Aliases and GL Codes With the Modeler Search

Explainer: What's the Difference Between an Alternate Hierarchy and Calculated Members?

Recently viewed articles

How-To: Assigning Dimension Types and Standard Members

How-To: Mapping Standard Vena Templates with Template Studio